

Marina Towers are located in one of the most wonderful places on Earth, the Baja California Peninsula, which has an incomparable blend of desert, mountain and sea, offering places to swim, fish, camp, golf, or simply relax and have fun. You can't miss walking by Tijuana's most famous street, Avenida Revolución, where you'll find exciting bars, lots of shopping (Mexican and foreign handcrafts leather goods, gold and silver jewelry, perfumes, tobacco) and multiple nightclubs. And remember to have a picture of yourself taken on a donkey, Tijuana's most popular tourist tradition.

Rosarito: 20 minutes drive south of Tijuana with its amazing beaches and nightspots where you may relax or party, or enjoy outdoor activities such as camping, horse-riding and surfing. A few miles away, Puerto Nuevo is a must, with its world famous lobster served with beans and rice.

Ensenada: Is one of the country's largest areas for fishing and whale-watching; and its mountains are a great place for camping and hiking.

The Mediterranean climate and its location in the Northern Hemisphere Wine Region make the Valle de Guadalupe, Mexico's prime wine producing area and there are special tours to explore it. About 17 miles from Ensenada towards the coast is one of the most impressive wonders of nature, the marine geyser "La Bufadora". Baja has something for everyone. There are also golf courses, adventure tours, bullfights, carnivals, concerts, museums, cantinas and excellent restaurants. It is the most exotic, diverse and heartwarming region south from the U.S. border. Marina Towers are right in the middle of this life gratifying experience, and you may be the proud owner of a superb piece of it right now.

Fun at its maximum expression!
